SAFETY COORDINATOR-MARJORIE DAVIS: Safety Coordinator Marjorie Davis spoke to the Commissioners about required posters for the county buildings. She explained that in past years she would photocopy the posters for the departments, but would like to purchase the posters this year. The Commissioners said ok as long as she had the money to do so, but asked her to get a count of how many she needs to order.

FOR THE RECORD: Sandy gave an update on the flagpoles and the sewer. She said she spoke with Tim Woodgeard in the Veterans Service Office about speaking with different organizations about donating to purchase the poles. She said she also spoke with Treasurer Diane Sargent and the Health Department concerning the sewer letters. She said the Commissioners need to come up with a cost and the other departments will work on the letter. Sandy also spoke with Sandy Johnson with HAPCAP. Sandy Johnson said they received 6 bids on the Snake Hill job in Murray City, so she will be in next week to discuss that with the Commissioners. She also said she has tried to contact Laurelville concerning
