MARK STOUT:

Mark Stout, Hocking County IT Director, discussed his concerns with the phone service provided by Frontier. He stated it's an internal issue not a countywide issue. He is requesting to lease service from a different company to resolve the issues with Frontier. The estimated cost is $78.00 per month.

Commissioner Ogle believes since the issue is with Frontier, they should be responsible to fix it. She asked when the current contract ends. Mark said one year from now.

Marjorie Moore commented the senior center is having other issues with their phones other than just calling 9-1-1.

Sue Morgan asked if Frontier had a monopoly in Hocking County. Mark said no, Spectrum is also available.

Commissioner Waugh suggested Mark contact the Frontier representative and ask if they will reduce our monthly bill the amount of the new lease.

Commissioner Ogle said she would like for the Frontier representative to attend the January 17th Commissioners Meeting at 10:15am.
