Sheriff & School

Chief Deputy Caleb Mortiz and Logan-Hocking Local School District's Superintendent - Monte Bainter discussed the old MARCs radios. These radios were originally given to the Sheriff's office by ODNR, so they could be given around. The schools are currently working on an old high band, and are quickly coming to the end of life. The Sheriff's office is requesting that the old MARC radios be donated to the school district. This will be extremely beneficial for their communication for the school resource officers and most importantly for the buses. Everyone will be able to communicate on one radio.

Motion by Jeff Dickerson and seconded by Sandra Ogle to approve the request.

Vote: Ogle, yea, Dickerson, yea.

Superintendent commented on Chief Mortiz always being informative and easy to communicate to.
