APPOINTMENTS

Chamber

Hocking Hills Chamber of Commerce Director Bailey Simons requested a letter of support for the Appalachian Ohio Community Grant. The Chamber would like to submit a project for renovations of the Chamber of Commerce building. The new building will support a cubicle working space for tourists and the community to rent and use the work space as needed. They are not asking the commissioner for any funding at this time.

Commissioner Ogle asks Bailey how she anticipates bringing in revenue to pay the project's cost even through this grant funding? Bailey replied that numbers are not finalized and funding from the state will help sustain this concept

Public Comment Sue Morgan asked if Baily was talking about the upstairs of the theater, and Bailey replied no the Hocking Hill Chamber of CommerceSue Morgan voiced her concern about the Hocking Hills Chamber of Commerce project and for the grant funding. Bailey replied to Sue Morgan and said that she is working closely with grants and that if they have to they will phase the project out

Sue Morgan voices her concerns as to why she is asking for the letter of support. Bailey replies that this Is just to help with getting the grants.

Bailey expressed the letter of support from the Commissioners and the benefits of the support.

The Commissioner will approve the letter of support at the next upcoming meeting.

COMMISSIONERS MEETING

EXECUTIVE SESSION: Motion by Gary Waugh and seconded by Jeff Dickerson with Attorney Jonathan Downes under possible litigation at 10:21 am via phone.

Motion Rescinded by President.

HAPCAP

Sean Brooks with HAPCAP presented the following bid for the Scenic Hills Wellness Facility parking improvement bid;

Mckee Contactor - $75,174.00

Commissioner Waugh asked if there was a deadline. Sean replied there is an extended 180 day project deadline, if they can not get to the project this year - expectation is once they get the contract executed next week, they would immediately get the project started.

Commissioner Dickerson voiced his concern to HAPCAP about the lack of information for the monthly HAPCAP meetings. Sean expressed that he would pass the information along to the executive directors. Dickerson added that he is concerned with how voting is working, when there is currently nothing to support online meetings.

Motion by Sandra Ogle and Seconded by Gary Waugh for Sean Books to come back next week.
