E. And afterwards to wit June 2nd 1892, the following entry filed:

In the matter of the application of The Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company for the vacation of its Addition to Murray City Ohio.

Entry of Vacation

This day came the petitioner, The Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company, and produced to the Court, satisfactory evidence that due and legal notice by publication as required by law has been given for more than thirty days by said petitioner, and that more than two-thirds of all the persons owning lots or parts of lots in said addition, (said petitioner owning all the lots therein) have made application to have said addition vacated. It is therefore considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the said, The Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company's addition to Murray City Ohio, be and the same hereby is vacated and held for naught, and that the clerk of this Court record these proceedings in the records of this Court and a copy of said record shall be made and certified by the clerk under the seal of the Court, which copy within thirty days from the rising of the Court shall by the petitioner be deposited with the Recorder of Hocking, Ohio, who shall record the same.

It is further ordered and adjudged that the said petitioner pay the cost of this proceeding.

Certificate to copy.

The State of Ohio, Hocking County, ss.

I, D. H. Lappen clerk of the Court of Common Pleas within and for said County, and in whose custody the files, pleadings, journals, records, execution dockets, and seal of said Court, are required by the laws of the State of Ohio to be kept, hereby certify that the foregoing copy of record is taken and copied from the records of the proceedings of the Court of Common Pleas within and for said Hocking County, and that the said foregoing copy has been compared by me with the original record and that the same is a correct transcript therefrom.

In Testimony Whereof, I do hereunto subscribe my name officially, and affix the seal of said Court at the Court House in Logan Ohio in said County, this 30th day of August A. D. 1892.
