

Proceedings before the Honorable Jos. G. Huffman one of the Judges in and for the First Subdivision of the Seventh Judicial District of Ohio began and held at the Court House in the Town of Logan and County of Hocking on the 2^d day of May A.D. 1892.

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit: On the 23^d day of April A.D. 1892 came The Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company by S. Welsky, Merrick & Tompkins its Attorneys and filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas its Petition which which word and figures as follows:

In the matter of the Vacating of The Columbus and Hocking Coal & Iron Company's Addition to Murray City Ohio.

Case No. 2297

Civil Action

Petition: Your Petitioner, The Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company, represents and states the fact to be, that it is a corporation duly organized under the Laws of Ohio; that it is the owner in fee of all the lots and lands embraced in what is known and delineated upon the records of said County as "The Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company's Addition to Murray City Ohio" the same being situate in said County of Hocking, and said Murray City being an incorporated village; that there are sixty-two separate lots in all in said addition and are numbered consecutively from one to Sixty two inclusive.

Your petitioner, for a more particular description of said lots and addition files herewith a copy of the plat thereof and makes the same a part of this petition.

Your petitioner further represents that it will be to its interest to have said vacated and held for naught, and it therefore prays that such will be done.

S. Welsky,

Merrick & Tompkins

Attorney for Petitioner.

The State of Ohio, Franklin County, ss.

Frank H. Merrick, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is attorney and agent of the above named corporation; The Columbus & Hocking Coal & Iron Company, and that the facts stated in the foregoing pleading are true as he believes

Frank H. Merrick.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 22^d day of April A.D. 1892.

Edwin T. Lisen, Notary Public (Seal)

Franklin County, Ohio.
