

The image shows the front cover of an antique book. The cover is decorated with marbled paper featuring a pattern of irregular, cell-like shapes in shades of grey, blue, yellow, and red. The spine of the book, visible on the left, is bound in worn, reddish-brown leather. A rectangular, light-colored paper label is pasted onto the center of the cover. The label contains the following text in cursive script:

Salt Creek
assessment of Real Property 1859.